A full or partial basic Old Age Security pension is payable at age 65 or later to everyone who has met certain residence requirements.

A Guaranteed Income Supplement is an additional amount payable to pensioners who have little or no other income apart from the Old Age Security pension. Entitlement is normally based on income in the preceding calendar year, computed in accordance with the Income Tax Act. Where a married common-law couple is concerned, each is considered to have one half of their combined income.

The Allowance is payable to the spouse or common-law partner of a pensioner, and to surviving common-law partner aged 60 to 64. All recipients must meet certain residence requirements. Entitlement is based on income.

All benefits under the Old Age Security program are subject to change in January, April, July and October of each year based on increases in the Consumer Price Index.

The benefits in effect as at April 1, 2018 were as follows:

Monthly benefits	$
OAS (basic)	589.59
GIS (maximum)	880.61
Single person or a married person whose spouse is not in receipt of OAS or ALW	880.61
Married couple, both pensioners — Each	530.12
Allowance (regular)	1,119.71
(survivor)	1,334.72

During the fiscal year ending on March 31, 2019, there were 6.2 million Old Age Security pensioners, of whom 2.0 million or 32.24 percent were also receiving a Guarantee Income Supplement; the average Supplement paid was $516.62. In addition, there were 73,092 recipients of the Allowance. The average Allowance benefit was $641.34.
